“Brew with the Crew”

TOPIC: Submitting Research Proposals that Cut the Mustard
SPEAKER: Tom Larson, Research Engineer, Idaho National Laboratory
DATE: Thursday, April 16, 2009
TIME: 4:30 – 6:30 p.m.
PLACE: Brownstone, 455 River Parkway, Idaho Falls, ID

“Brew with the Crew” is an after work event, that will take place every third Thursday of the month at the Brownstone, 455 River Parkway, Idaho Falls. The purpose of the meetings is to allow opportunity for instrumentation, control and intelligent systems researchers and practitioners to interact with others in their community. In this informal forum, people are not required to provide a documented presentation, but instead to share the nature of their research and interests and to possibly include some interesting stories on the way.

The first meeting will be held on April 16 and will be led by Tom Larson who will discuss “Submitting Research Proposals that Cut the Mustard”. The brewing will begin at 4:30 p.m. with the topical discussion starting at 5:00 and adjourning around 6:30 p.m. Finger food will be provided to keep the stomachs from growling.
